

ABOUT TIM SHEERMAN-CHASE

Tim is a local resident and has been an active campaigner in Portsmouth for several years, with his ancestral routes tracing back to nearby Emsworth.

Tim works as a software contractor and AI specialist. He is used to tackling problems and finding solutions by evaluating the evidence.

Tim currently specialises in air quality and sustainable transport issues.

Tim says, "In these difficult times, we need someone who will represent Copnor residents and ensure the services that people need."

CLEAN UP OUR NEIGHBOURHOOD!

Tim has been working hard in the local area to improve the litter and fly tipping situation. Residents have expressed their concern about the mess in parks and on roads. Litter picking sessions organised by Tim have been very successful.

Tim says, "Residents are worried about the state of their neighbourhood. We need more bins and a more accessible way to recycle and dispose of household waste."

TIM'S TOP PRIORITIES

- ✓ Listening – Open communication is a top priority for Tim
- ✓ Air Pollution – Everyone has the right to breathe clean air
- ✓ Littering – Tim is keen to help anyone report problems
- ✓ Parking – Residents should be consulted on parking permits
- ✓ Crime – Tim wants to encourage community engagement to prevent crime

The rubbish and dog poo left all over our streets is disgusting. Tim will focus council resources to improve this by working with the community. It is too difficult to access the recycling centre without a car. Tim says, "We need an alternative. Enough is enough! We deserve better!"

Residents parking schemes need to be done with consideration and care. Tim says, "Introducing it in one area just causes more problems just outside the zone."

Residents are concerned about crime and anti-social behaviour. Tim promises to pass on local concerns to the local police.

Apart from a tiny section on the Eastern Road, safe cycle routes in the area need a massive upgrade! Tim will speak up for a continuous cycle network.
